

Gary E. Kalbaugh

Gary E. Kalbaugh is Director and Assistant General Counsel at ING Financial Holdings Corp. and a Special Professor of Law at the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University. His practice areas include derivatives and banking law. Previously, he served as an Executive Director, Counsel and Chief US Data Protection Officer at WestLB AG, chairing the Underwriting and Dodd-Frank Task Forces. He serves on the New York City Bar Association's Committee on the Regulation of Futures and Derivatives and chaired the Over-the-Counter Derivatives and CLE Sub-Committees. He is currently an adjunct member of the New York City Bar Association's Banking Law Committee. Mr. Kalbaugh is also a member of the New York State Bar Association's Derivatives and Structured Products Law Committee and a Board member of the Center for Transnational Legal Studies. He is a frequent speaker and writer on derivatives and banking law topics, chairing the New York City Bar Association's 2012 Futures and Derivatives conference. A graduate of the National University of Ireland, University College Cork (Bachelor of Civil Laws, cum laude, 1998), he received his Master of Laws at the University of Pennsylvania in 1999.

Mr. Kalbaugh is currently writing a casebook, Derivatives Law, to be published by Aspen in 2014.